

Dr. Leslie Z. Benet, Professor and former Chairman (1978-1998) of Bioengineering and Therapeutic Sciences, University of California San Francisco (UCSF), received his AB, BS and MS from the University of Michigan, and PhD from UCSF. He has received nine honorary doctorates, five from Europe and four from the US, most recently the University of Lisbon in 2016. Dr. Benet served as President of the Academy of Pharmaceutical Sciences (1985) and in 1986 was a founder and first President of the American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists. In 1987 he was elected to membership in the National Academy of Medicine of the US National Academy of Sciences. In 1993-4 he served as President of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, from 1996-2000 as Chair of the International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP) Board of Pharmaceutical Sciences and from 2006-2012 as Chair of the FIP Foundation for Education and Research. Recently among his many honors were dedication of the September 2012 issue of Pharmaceutical Research, the 2013 APhA Ebert Prize, dedication of the September 2013 issue of Journal of Pharmaceutical Sciences, selection for the 2013 AAPS Journal Manuscript Award, ISSX North American Achievement Award in 2015, and the Remington Honor Medal of APhA in 2016, the highest award in American Pharmacy. Dr. Benet has published over 560 scientific articles and book chapters, holds 12 patents and served as editor of 7 books. He has been listed by Thompson Reuters among the most highly cited pharmacologists worldwide from 2001 through 2016, with his peer reviewed publications being referenced in the peer reviewed literature on more than 25,000 occasions.